

Brett Geertsma

Brett Geertsma is serving as the Director of Recreation for Zeeland Public Schools after being hired in the spring of 2015. He comes to Zeeland after serving as the high school Athletic Director at Potter's House High School (Wyoming, Michigan) for five years. Prior to his time at Potter's House, Brett spent two years in Phoenix, Arizona as an Elementary Physical Education teacher and Varsity Boys Basketball assistant coach at Scottsdale Christian Schools.

Brett, a native of Holland and a Holland Christian graduate ('03), received his bachelor's degree from Calvin College ('08, B.A., K-12 Physical Education, Psychology) and his master's degree from Grand Valley State University ('13, M.Ed., Education Leadership).

In addition to his role at Zeeland Recreation, Brett also serves as an Assistant Men's Varsity Basketball coach at Calvin College.

Brett and his wife, Biz, reside in Zeeland. Biz is also a Zeeland Public Schools employee and serves as an Elementary Physical Education teacher.