Dancer's Name _____

Class(es) _____

Parent Name and Contact _____

Dance costumes are usually form fitting and should not fit at the time of the show with room to grow, as bagginess in costumes is unflattering on stage. Girth is the most critical measurement in determining costume size. If a dancer is between sizes or questionable in any measurements, we will always order up in size as costumes can be taken in but are not easily let out. Not every figure or build can be fit perfectly when costumes are not custom tailored. Alterations are not the responsibility of the instructor. Parents/guardians are responsible for all alterations including things like taking straps in so the leotard fits across the chest and under the arms correctly. Many costume makers purposely give generously for camisole or halter style straps so they can work for as many bodies as possible. They must be sewn precisely for your child. Costume companies do not allow dance costumes to be returned. Dancers will gain one inch in girth during the school year. If at the top of the size range already, order up. Please contact your dancer's teacher with any questions. They are very knowledgeable and happy to help you with any costuming questions.
